EXPERIENCE

Senior Product Designer — Decisions

2023-Current

Led the end-to-end design and rollout of AI-driven meeting experiences within the Microsoft 365 ecosystem, including Agenda Builder, Meeting Minutes, and Meeting Recap tools powered by Decisions AI. Designed and launched the Advanced Reporting system and Admin Portal, enabling enterprise-level analytics, license management, and scalability for large tenants.

Senior Product Designer — Microsoft

2018-2022

Helped build the future of hybrid work through Microsoft Teams for over 270 million customers. I worked across timezones with global feature crews on multiple areas including breakout rooms, together mode, and in-meetings notifications framework.

Creative Consultant - Freelance

2009-2017

- Electronic Arts - UI/UX
- Ipsos Open Thinking Exchange - Art Director
- Idean - Visual Designer & UX Research
- Jones-Dilworth – Creative Direction, Illustration

Creative Co-Founder — Vivogig

2011-2013

Led the vision, creative direction and presentation design to raise $400k in seed funding. As the Creative Co-Founder of Vivogig, I played a pivotal role in shaping the brand and bringing our product to life. I leveraged my design expertise to develop an iPhone photography app and website for concert-goers, enabling them to tag their favorite bands. This also allowed concert sponsors to integrate their branding and photo

TANNER MOEHLE

Senior Product Designer

EXPERIENCE

Art Director —Tocquigny

2007-2009

As an Art Director at Tocquigny, I led the creation of compelling print and media campaigns, including defining campaign messaging, developing branding, and creating print ads and animated flash banners. I managed a team of production artists, developers, and copywriters to deliver impactful campaigns.

Graphic Designer — USDM.net

2002-2004

As a Designer at USDM.net, my role involved crafting online campaigns aimed at promoting travel packages for different CVB entities. These campaigns encompassed the design of websites, email templates, and landing pages, all strategically crafted to drive engagement and facilitate purchases.
